Tomb of the King and Royal Cemetery

Dive into the history of the Ari'i (kings) of Tahiti with our guide Matarī'i who will tell you lots of anecdotes about the history and customs of the Mā'ohi people!

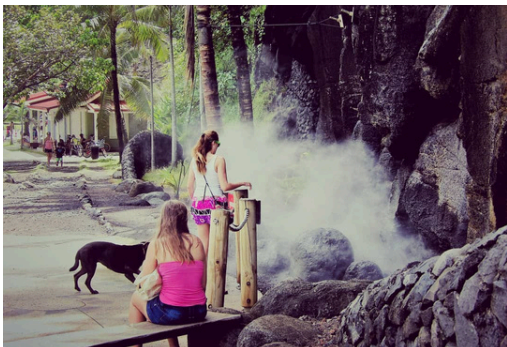

James Norman Hall Museum

Discover the inspiring life of James Norman Hall, co-author of the Mutiny on the Bounty Trilogy, who fought in both World Wars before settling in Tahiti.

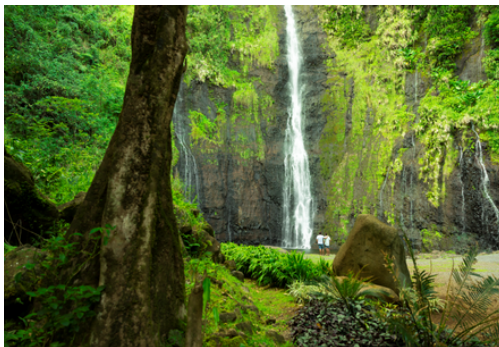

Pointe Vénus and its lighthouse

Visit Tahiti's only lighthouse, one of the most iconic sites where Captain James Cook landed in 1769, and a beautiful black sand beach popular with locals.

The Arahoho Blowhole

Take a breath of fresh air at this unique site where you'll experience a rare natural phenomenon. Waves crash into a hole that blows powerful, refreshing jets of sea breeze.

The 3 Waterfalls of Fa'aurumai

Visit one of Polynesia's most beautiful natural parks, boasting myriad legends and memorable landscapes. The Three Waterfalls offer a charming walk, an accessible and soothing stopover in the heart of lush greenery.

Le Rocher de Tahiti: a unique natural site

Exclusive: Le Rocher de Tahiti is a unique and legendary place, where you will be transported by the basalt promontory that breaks the waves.

You will also enjoy a traditional welcome, a local lunch and cultural workshops!
